

Carved in Stone? The Green Man in Gothic Sculpture

The Leaves of Southwell Project Presents:

a talk by Cassie Harrington

9th March 2021

2.00pm on Microsoft Teams

Flourishing in the margins of medieval visual culture, foliate heads or Green Men enriched manuscripts and buildings. This talk will examine how recovering and piecing together the historical context of Green Men iconography can shed light on its significance during the High Gothic period and thus exploring the cultural and symbolic importance of these enigmatic images.
