

Make your own statue Christus Rex

Colour in and cut out your Christus Rex statue. Curve the base into a ring and slot the two sides together.

I am Christus Rex which means Christ the King. When people visit Southwell Minster, my outstretched arms show everyone that they are welcome.

Stand your Christus Rex on display at home.

Did you know?

Sculptor Peter Eugene Ball lives in Newark. He created the magnificent 3 m (10 ft) tall Christus Rex statue in 1987 from oak and elm wood. It is covered in gold and copper leaf and shines down from the rafters in the Minster's Nave.
