' In Search of the Green Man
... Claypole's Mysterious Faces'

a talk by our local professional historian

Jean Townsend

Images of Green Men can be found all over churches in the British Isles. Searching them out is a fascinating way of getting to know your local church, or any you are visiting. Southwell Minster and Lincoln cathedral have them as well as many Lincolnshire churches.

Claypole has several figures for us to seek out!

£7.00 ticket incl light refreshments

BOOKING - please contact Robert Prabucki
