

THE SUTTON BROTHERS - the Revd Algernon and the Revd Frederick - were the sons of Sir Richard Sutton Bart, of Norwood Park. They were amateur glass painters, but very good ones. They were responsible for the two roundel windows in the clerestory in the south transept.