THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

You never enjoy the world aright till you so love the beauty of enjoying it, that you are covetous and earnest to persuade others to enjoy it . . . The world is a mirror of infinite beauty, yet no man sees it. It is a Temple of Majesty yet no man regards it. It is a region of light and peace, did not men disquiet it. It is the Paradise of God. It is the place of angels, and the Gate of Heaven.

Denise Inge (ed.), Happiness and Holiness: Thomas Traherne and his Writings, Canterbury Press, 2008, p.125–6.

THE MINSTER COMMUNITY

We are delighted that, after a time of prayerful discernment, Joss Howell has been accepted to train for Licensed Lay Ministry with the Diocese of Southwell and Nottingham. This is a 2-year period of training and formation starting this month. Please do support Joss in this calling by upholding him in your prayers and as we seek to grow our lay ministry capacity and gifts in the cathedral. If you would like to know more about the diocesan training for Licensed Lay Ministry, please visit <https://southwell.anglican.org/licensed-lay-ministry-applications-now-open/>.

Mike Davies — St Mellitus College Placement Ordinand. We are delighted that Mike is currently training for ordained ministry with St Mellitus College East Midlands. Mike is currently a Licensed Lay Minister serving at St. Stephen's, Sneinton and a Prison Lay Chaplain. He is also part of the Nottingham Urban Abbey Prayer network. As part of his ordinand's contextual placement, Mike will be joining the Minster for a few days through September to support and learn about cathedral ministry. Please do say 'hello' to Mike if you see him around in the cathedral.

Community Cuppa. The next Community Cuppa will be held on Thursday 17 September, 10.30–11.30am in the South Transept. All are welcome to drop in for tea, coffee and biscuits, to meet new people, and to enjoy a change of scenery in a relaxed setting.

Coffee rota volunteers needed. The Sunday morning coffee rota has recently lost several members, who have stepped down after years of dedicated service. If you are able to help, please speak to one of the clergy or to Leisa Shaw. Many hands make light work!

Live Streaming volunteers needed. The live-streaming of our main Sunday services is undertaken by a small group of volunteers, and to ensure that we can continue to live-stream the current number of services we could really do with another couple of people to join the rota. Whilst basic familiarity with computer technology will be required, training will be provided on the specifics of operating the cameras. Please contact Alastair Clarke (Liturgy and Worship Administrator) if you would like to discuss this responsibility further – e-mail alastair.clarke@southwellminster.org.uk

MUSIC AND EVENTS

Small Sounds: make some music with your little ones! This autumn, Southwell Minster is launching Small Sounds, a new music programme giving families with children aged 0–5 the chance to enjoy weekly music sessions during term time. Starting Friday 18 September at 9.30am in the South Transept of the Minster, our brilliant Small Sounds leader, Lauren, will lead little ones and their grown-ups through songs, play and musical discovery — helping them find their voices and discover the joy of singing. We're delighted to have been selected by Cathedral Music Trust to take part in this UK-wide project, developed in response to the need for more early-years music-making opportunities. Sessions are offered for a suggested donation of £5.00 per family. For more information, email lauren.osmond@southwellminster.org.uk.

Gala Organ Concert: Carolyn Craig, Wednesday 16 September, 7.30pm. Our second Gala Organ Concert of 2026 is given by Carolyn Craig, Assistant Director of Music at

After the success of last year’s concert of music from the musicals of Stephen Sondheim, members of the Music Department and friends return with a concert devoted to the comic operas of W. S. Gilbert and Arthur Sullivan. From the high seas of H.M.S. Pinafore to the fairy realms of Iolanthe, our performers present a programme of some of the creative partnership’s best-known numbers.

Silent Film Concert: The Phantom of the Opera, Wednesday 14 October, 7.30pm. Join us for a screening of the 1929 silent film The Phantom of the Opera, starring Lon Chaney, alongside live organ accompaniment on our Binns Nave Organ. Renowned organist Martin Baker returns to improvise a live soundtrack to this famous film. Martin was Master of Music at Westminster Cathedral for almost twenty years and is internationally acclaimed for his liturgical and concert improvisations. He last performed in Southwell five years ago, and we are thrilled to welcome him back. Tickets available here.

de Mowbray’s Musicke — Musicians Strike Up! Medieval Music, Stories and Songs, Saturday 17 October, State Chamber, 2.00pm. Learn about Sir Geoffrey Luttrell whose life spanned the 13th and 14th centuries. He commissioned a beautiful book of prayers and the psalms, the Luttrell Psalter, described as ‘England’s most significant medieval manuscript’. On most of its over 600 pages there are scenes of medieval life, beautifully illustrated in the margins. The psalter’s significance to musicians is that the book contains images of seventeen different musical instruments, and in this concert you will see and hear all of those different instruments. During the interval you will be able to see the group’s own folio copy of the psalter as well as see their instruments close up. Tickets available here.

Bramley Apple Festival of Food and Drink, Saturday 24 October, 10.00am–3.30pm. Southwell's best loved food and drink fair returns! This event will also include the final judging of the Young Virtuoso Competition. Four of the finest young musicians from the East Midlands will be performing in competition for a £1,000 prize, which will be presented on the night. Tickets available here.
